The Loseley Park and Surrey Advertiser Natural Photography Awards 2014

Loseley Park and the Surrey Advertiser's award-winning website, getsurrey.co.uk are teaming up to launch the second annual photographic competition to find the finest amateur photographers, who can capture the beauty and atmosphere of Loseley's ancient Walled Garden and grounds.

The competition is open to enthusiasts of all ages from 25th April when the Loseley Spring Garden Show opens, and the deadline is 30th September 2014 when the Walled Garden closes.

You are asked to email up to three entries to Sue Grant – sueg@loseleypark.co.uk. All short-listed entries will be notified, and their work will then be displayed at an awards presentation at Loseley in October, when the winners will be announced. Short-listed photographers will be asked to mount (not frame) their own entries for this presentation.

Ethan Collumbell – Overall Runner-up: 2013 competition.

Mark Baker – Winner Wildlife Category: 2013 competition.

There are five categories in the competition:

- Landscape
- The Walled Garden
- Flowers
- Wildlife
- People in nature

The judges' decision will be final and they will not enter into any correspondence.
